IN THE COOL OF THE DAY

In the cool of the day, When the gentle-fingered wind bends the Branches of the willows, And the grasses lie close to the bottomlands, I wander down to the brook in the meadow And sit on its quiet bank, let my hand Make ever-widening ripples in the cool water, And dream of the other evenings in the meadows among the wildflowers.
The crickets sing to me,
And the wind whispers in my ear of laughing Sun filled childhood days in these green meadows.
When the friendly sun has sunk into the land beyond the distant hills, I rise from my memories and wander home,
In the cool of the day.

MUTE

O, the quiet serenity of silence the undisturbed simplicity of thought the smile the handshake the understanding unspoken and yet as real as you are to me unconsciously I call out to you, not realizing the inadequacies of tongue but with a gentle touch you understand and a soft smile you talk to me and a knowing look that is the discovery of hidden laughter we'll never hear but feel,
 you are so beautiful.

Shield

"Everyone is replaceable" — The motto of the 1970 SHIELD staff. Broken croppers, birthday parties, trips to the zoo and to Buffalo accented the year. As months of hard work came to an end the members of the SHIELD presented their 1970 issue with pride ■

Orchestra

Strains of music could be heard coming from the Activities wing of Start High every morning between 7:30 and 8:30 as the Orchestra practiced. Conducted by Mr. Bruce Jacobson, the entire Orchestra visited elementary schools and played for students to arouse a further interest in music. They participated in the Youth Performs concert and provided the background music for the National Honor Society's fall and spring inductions. The Orchestra traveled to Mansfield where they competed in state-wide contests ■

Senior Band

With practices starting in August, the marching band produced a modern half-time show for the football games, featuring such songs as "Aquarius", "Everyday With You Girl", and "The Stripper." A smaller group of band members make up the pep band which plays during all home basketball games and pep assemblies. The Band-Choir candy sale and a tag day were successful money-making projects. The proceeds went toward new uniforms and instruments. In the Spring the entire band entertained the students at the annual ice-cream social. ■

Royal Choir

The ability to sing is not the only requirement needed to become a member of Start's Royal Choir. Patience and stamina are qualities necessary to endure the struggle for perfection. The Choir directed by Mr. McClure, presented a spirited Christmas program which featured many seasonal favorites ■

Keeping in step with the times, the Start Spartanettes danced to the tune of "Aquarius" this year, as they performed and entertained during halftime activities. With their spirited yells and shaking pom poms the Spartanettes provided spirit at football and basketball games. Under the advisorship of Mrs. Kimble, the Spartanettes improved dance routines, steps and turns ■

Cheerleaders

The leadership and enthusiasm of the cheerleaders has been the spark of spirit at many pep rallies and athletic events. The girls spent long hours after school and during the summer as they attended the Kent State University Cheerleading Clinic. They returned home with a 3rd place and two 2nd place ribbons. The students and teams of Start owe much to the lively spirited girls who have earned the title of "cheerleader" ■

Intramurals

In any school the keen competition for success is a strong motivating force, often causing students to push hard in attempting to reach lofty goals. Intramurals provide an outlet for this need to run, to jump, and to win. During the week in the Start High gym interested girls participate in volley-ball, competing against other teams. In the spring boys match their skills as they engage in the game of soccer. Intramurals—competition with others ■

Wrestling

The Start grapplers finished the 1970 season with a 2-3-2 team record. A 38-8 victory over Libbey, gave the Spartans their biggest win of the season. Co-captain Jeff Oswald led the squad with an over-all record of 16-3-1, which earned him the M.V.P. award. Under the able coaching of Don Niederhauser, the wrestling squad finished the season by placing 2nd in the Bowling Green Invitational Tournament ■ crossing over into a new world

High school is the bridge between the past and the future One side is composed of memories, the other of dreams.
Together they construct and support a new world

kaleidoscope

I move in a group not really a crowd but a cluster of similar types My preparations, yearnings, and my hopes of success are bewildering Baffled, I strive to interpret the complexity of high school but where do I turn?

tied together, bound to ourselves

I am bound to the other Freshmen by a rope of humility keep me from becoming an individual

standstill

I am on a see-saw Sometimes I am up and see forever, a neverending joy and ecstasy Other times I am down the pain and depression overwhelm me as I sink lower and lower Still I move.
But now the sides have balanced and the ride has ceased I see straight ahead no rise and no fall, just ever continuing consistancy a resultant sense of boredom Finding no event in my life to cause a change, I wonder, when I move, will it be up or down?

end to the void

Released after years of existing I am climbing the ladder of experience.
 Not only learning to think, but to grow I am questioning and deciding and demanding recognition.
 Even when losing my footing in defeat, I realize each step takes me closer to myself as I grasp the rungs of my personal hopes and feelings.

Class of 1971

out of darkness

All the reflections of my past loom larger as they approach me Outlines form and fade as feelings become a part of my world I understand other people but to myself, I remain a shadow These emotions will help me realize who and what I am dedicated to a certainty, with uncertain devotion

Whether I am part of a group or striving for an individual goal, I try to find the need to work and to devote myself to what I feel is right.
But at times I see in myself an insincerity and an indifference toward my obligations ## freedom to build the life i want

There are new roles to try: new ideas to weigh and measure I am optimistic and pessimistic at the same time I search, seek, and question for absolute answers I am racing for time to think, to feel, and to live ## altered mood

Whether I realize it or not, in the midst of uncertainties and I care enough to think of others.

I must make it the best.

only when i laugh

Unassuming bliss accompanied by rejection of responsibilities; just letting go and acting without thought to create a silly, juvenile joy—Laughing uncontrollably also an impish craving

the end and the beginning

This year is the boundary between the hope to be and the attempt to be Yet I am still at an early stage, and I sit and wonder if it will ever end as i see it . . . .

Quiet surroundings transformed become people belonging together.
Life comes and we are in a hurry.
We want to go somewhere.
No.
We think about the future

Student Body

Having a great time up here in the Shield room.
Sure wish you were here The weather is perfect. Just finished re-cropping a picture. Expecting to mail any day now Oh, by the way, a collection of poems should reach you any time H T. asked for them Well that's about it. Be back soon

 Mr. Schira and H. T., too

For life and death are one thing the river and sea are one

Only when you drink from the river of Silence shall you indeed sing And when you have reached the mountain top, then you shall begin to climb And when the earth shall claim you In death then shall you truly dance
